THE 1ST

6:00 OPENERS
Is getting up a soul-shattering experience? Feel like your face will break if you smile? Try Openers with Mike August. Soothing music and considerate talk. Nice.

9:00 BEN TEAGUE AND HIS WIRELESS MESSAGE
Starring Ben Teague in the title role. Music, from Josquin des Prez to Pierre Boulez. And Ben knows what classical music radio announcers sound like, too.

12:00 noon READING ALOUD
As always, Bill Cavness reads. This selection is a far-out science fiction novel, From the Earth to the Moon by Jules Verne.

12:30 THE GARAGE SALE
On-air auditions of new tapes, records, people; replays of your favorite programs too. Louisa Shaw is in charge, and invites your comments on the new material. Call 224-4000 to enter yours.

1:59 FACTS with Dr. Science

2:00 THE LEGITIMATION OF EVIL
Nevitt Sanford moderates a program on Resisting Institutional Evil. Recorded at the Wright Institute Conference held in February 1970 at Grace Cathedral, San Francisco.

3:40 DRAMA IN STEREO
The Callers by David Kranes opens with a lonely man flipping his television set from station to station. Then he picks up his phone and dials the number of a stranger. . .

4:30 STUDS' PLACE
Chicago's WFMT is blessed with the presence of Studs Terkel—talker, writer and, most important, listener. Studs' guests have included the famous and the obscure, but always the interesting. You can hear him on Pacifica every Monday and Wednesday.

5:30 THE LORD OF THE RINGS
Bill Cavness began reading Tolkien's enormous fantasy trilogy way back in the spring. He's almost done now — well into The Return of the King, Cavness' next project: the Oxford English Dictionary.

6:00 LIFE ON EARTH
One of the damnedest news programs you'll ever hear. The Pacifica News Group (two staff members and dozens of volunteers) watches Houston relentlessly; their friends at the Associated Press and other radio stations watch America and the world. Our reporters talk about what they've found out, for an hour and sometimes more.

7:00 BITE-SIZE RADIO

Women's day

March 8 is International Women's Day. KPFT will be operated by a special crew of women for 24 hours, from 6 am Monday till 6 am Tuesday. The day will contain a wide variety of programming directed specifically toward a female audience. Tapes we'll play include a discussion of women in the media, an interview with Madame Binh of the National Liberation Front, a discussion of Black women and their poetry, and The Making of Miss America 1970. And as for music, you'll hear some great artists from Billie Holiday and Bessie Smith to Anna Moffo and Ampara Iturbi. There will be live minstrels in the studio during the day as well. This is your day, sisters! Please give us a call and let us know where you're at.
Women's Day news coverage will include Pacifica's regular live broadcast of the Houston School Board meeting at 7:30.

Pacifica

This is Volume II, No. 1 of the Folio, published by KPFT-FM in Houston as a service to its sponsoring listeners. KPFT is owned and operated by Pacifica Foundation, a nonprofit California corporation chartered in 1946 and, in 1968, authorized to conduct operations in Texas.

Pacifica exists to run radio stations which are wholly noncommercial and educational, and is affiliated with no other organization or political party.

The other Pacifica stations are KPFA, Berkeley, California 94704; KPFK, Los Angeles 91604 and WBAI, New York City 10021. Application is pending for a fifth station, which will serve Washington, D. C.

KPFT broadcasts at 90.1 megacycles, with an effective radiated power of 48,000 watts.

Our studios and offices are at 618 Prairie in downtown Houston. All station departments may be reached by dialing 713/224-4000. To subscribe to the station, dial 224-9009.

The Folio isn't sold, but mailed free each month to each subscriber to the station. Subscribers are people who contribute to our operational costs, and their gifts are tax deductible in the Internal Revenue Service's highest category of deduction—the rate accorded public charities, up to 50 per cent of your adjusted gross income. Subscription rates are as follows:

The 800 . . . . . $60/year
Regular $24/year
Student, retired, unemployed $12/year

Regular subscriptions may be paid in two or four monthly installments, if desired. Student/retired/unemployed subscriptions may be paid in two monthly installments. Subscriptions to The 800 which, once paid, bring the contributor a signed and numbered etching by Bob Fowler, may be billed monthly or quarterly.

If you know of something you think we should be broadcasting, please write or telephone us about it. We are likely to respond by asking you to participate in or to advise on production of the programming you suggest. In such cases, the station's materials, equipment and technicians are available to the individual or organization without cost.

Staff (PAID)

Most of what is heard on KPFT, as well as most of the administrative work around the station, is done by volunteers who receive no pay. Certain engineering, business, legal, promotion, continuity and editorial functions are performed by a paid staff of nine, who are:

Glenn English
Mitch Green
Sam Hudson
Larry Lee
David Roberts
Louisa Shaw
Jeff Shero
Walt Silvus
Ben Teague
Gary Thiher
